

The Trustee no longer offers a live, in-person, personal financial management course through our office.

We anticipate offering a free, online, personal financial management course in the near future.

Please continue to check our website for further updates.

The personal financial management course is also available through other online providers for a fee. If you choose this option, your attorney can give you a list of providers.